WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK

ACCCA 2019 SALARY SURVEY RESULTS ARE IN!

Each year, ACCCA surveys CEOs and CHROs at every community college district in the state. The survey provides an accurate snapshot of compensation data for administrative positions common to California community colleges. Data includes information on salaries, benefits, allowances and stipends, longevity pay, and span of control for positions ranging from CEO to Deans. Reports are separated out by single college districts and multi-college districts. You can use the results to negotiate fair compensation or to identify opportunities for growth within the community college system. CLICK HERE to access the survey results.

WEBINAR TRAINING AND SURVEY

Part II of the webinar series, Rewriting the Rules and Practices of Administrators in Community Colleges After COVID 19 will air at 2 p.m. next Thursday, April 30. Register in advance here. The first session which aired last Thursday was well attended and provided some great information. You can access the slideshow here.

ACCCA'S SUMMER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

We are so excited to be able to bring our summer professional development programs to you in a creative way! The temporary change in format will allow ACCCA to bring you the content that you need, RIGHT NOW, in a remote setting. We will be able to offer these programs to more attendees because we won't be limited to a specific room size. We are also able to spread out the dates for Admin 101 and this might open the program up for folks who previously weren't able to leave their jobs for an extended training. For more information, click the buttons below.

ACCCA HAS SOME BOARD SEATS TO FILL

We are excited to receive your self-nominations for the ACCCA Board of Directors! Like your own institutions, ACCCA is facing unprecedented external threats that require true leadership to preserve the organization, and respond with innovative solutions for members. Your willingness to be counted as one of those leaders is a gift to the organization and all the members who support it. We don't take that lightly, and our promise is that we will always value your time, and we will provide you with all the information you will need to contribute to, and lead the Association. CLICK HERE to submit your self-nomination. Please submit all nominations online by May 4, 2020.
