

Overview of the 2018-19 Governor's Budget

January 2018

Amy Costa

Chief Deputy Director, Budget Department of Finance

Summary of the 2018-19 Governor's Budget

- One-time budget surplus, but massive uncertainty
- Full Implementation of Local Control Funding Formula
- Fully fills the Rainy Day Fund to 10 percent of tax revenues
- Creation of online community college
- Extension of Cal Competes and hiring tax credits
- First full year of SB1 transportation funding
- Cap and Trade funding plan to come at State of State

Uncertainties and the 2018-19 Governor's Budget

- Federal Government
  - Implications of Tax Bill
  - CHIP Reauthorization
  - Potential for Federal Cost Shifting
- Next Recession?

Budget Assumes Current Recovery Would Match Longest Ever

Annual Revenue Could Drop by Over $20 Billion in a Recession

(Dollars in Millions)

Filling Up the Rainy Day Fund Before the Next Recession

School Funding Has Increased by 66 Percent Since 2011

Online Community College

Student-Focused Funding Formula

Proposed Community College Budget

One-time Deferred Maintenance and Instructional Equipment

California College Promise

Financial Aid Consolidation

Apportionments

Innovation Awards