WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK

---

Thank you for LEADING!

Last week's Motivational featured a call to arms at several campuses where the Campus Rep seat is currently vacant. We were gratified by the response and are now in the process of filling those vacancies and providing a one on one orientation to the new reps. This is a good time to remind everyone who their rep is! The Campus Rep Roster is linked to this message so find out who YOUR ACCCA Campus Rep is and thank them for their volunteerism on your behalf! If your campus doesn't have a rep yet, please step up and keep our ACCCA member network strong! All campus reps will receive a brief training/orientation and you'll be immediately connected to every other rep in the system!

Learning Opportunity Hosted by ACCCA Affiliate A2MEND

On Saturday, August 1st our colleagues at A2MEND will host a unique, and not-to-be missed opportunity to continue the conversation on race, equity, and inclusion. Their program: *ANTI-RACISM: Across Racial Lines, a National Dialogue on the History of Anti-Black Racism and its Impact on US Society* is billed as a national discussion and it draws on the expertise of three well known thought leaders on this topic. New York Times best selling authors and renowned scholars Dr. Ibram X. Kendi ( How to be an Anti-Racist ), Tim Wise ( Dear White America ) and Dr. Marc Lamont Hill ( The Classroom and the Cell ) will discuss the history and current challenges in confronting structural racism in America and in the education system. We want to thank the leadership at A2MEND for bringing this incredible panel together, and we encourage you to take advantage of this unique learning opportunity!

Member Dues Authorization

Last but not least, if you haven't already done it, PLEASE send your dues confirmation/authorization form back to ACCCA so we can update your member profile! If you have questions or need the form re-sent to you contact Christel Mikami at membership@accca.org! Thank you for listening and have a super week!
